It is the hope of Great Lakes Region 4 that the employer of any award recipient take the lead on handling any press releases in support of the recipient. In the event a given employer does indeed manage press options, Great Lakes Region 4 respectfully requests that the following passage be included:

The National Association for Interpretation (NAI) is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit professional organization dedicated to advancing the profession of heritage interpretation, currently serving about 5,000 members in the United States, Canada, and over thirty other nations. Individual members include those who work at parks, museums, nature centers, zoos, botanical gardens, aquariums, historical and cultural sites, commercial tour companies, and theme parks. Commercial and institutional members include those who provide services to the heritage interpretation industry.*

The Association is divided into ten geographical regions to help members network with others who work near them through periodical newsletters and activities. Region 4, the Great Lakes Region, includes Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, and Ontario.

NAI's Mission is to inspire leadership and excellence to advance heritage interpretation as a profession.

If the recipient is not currently employed, Great Lakes Region 4 is prepared to offer some assistance with press releases. Please include up to three media contacts in the space provided below.
